DEVELOPMENTS

Upcoming AGRODEP Workshops

In partnership with the Fondation pour les Etudes et Recherches sur le Developpement (FERDI), AGRODEP is co-sponsoring a workshop on Evaluation of Interventions on Agricultural Technology Adoption. The event will be held on November 5-9, 2018 in Dakar, Senegal. The training workshop aims to support researchers and policymakers in the design of experimental evaluations of interventions seeking to support adoption of agricultural technologies.

AGRODEP will also hold a workshop on the African Continental Free Trade Area (CFTA) on November 12-15, 2018. The key objectives of the workshop are: (a) to present recent and ongoing research related to the CFTA and regional integration in Africa, (b) to launch the AGRODEP expert group for policy analysis and advisory services in the area of trade and regional integration, and (c) to define and discuss research questions and priorities and innovative research methodologies to support evidence-based policy recommendations related to the CFTA.
